7. In Chapter 1, Paul speaks very passionately about worldly wisdom vs worldly foolishness. What is Paul's message here? (Chpt 1:14-31. Paul came preaching, not in the wisdom of men, because the wisdom of this world denies God and says the cross is foolishness. Paul is saying that men, in their own wisdom will never be as wise as God. He goes to say that even God's 'foolishness' trumps the wisdom of men. Ultimately, no one should glorify man over God, and therefore no flesh should glory in God's presence. The Corinthians were divided over who baptized them, therefore glorifying man (either St. Paul or Apollos). St. Paul says, it doesn't matter who baptized you - none of them are above Christ).
8. What is Paul's reasoning for not using excellence of speech when he is preaching the gospel? (Chpt 2:5)

16. Do you not know that you are the _____ and that the _____ dwells in you? (Chpt 3:16)

18. What virtue is required of a steward above anything else? (Chapter 4:2)
19. In Chapter 4, some of the Corinthians were prejudging St. Paul and questioning his apostolic authority. Is St. Paul concerned about being judged? Why or why not? What does he say about being judged? (Chapter 4, vs 1-7. St. Paul says it doesn't matter to him if men judge him; it doesn't even matter if he judges himself, for only God knows the counsel of the heart and darkness within. Therefore, judge nothing before its time).
20. In Chapter 4, St. Paul mentions how he and the other apostles are being treated by the world and then compares them to the lives of some of the criticizing members of the Corinthian church? Why does he do this? What is the point St. Paul is trying to make? (Chapter 4, vs 8-13. Members of the church are being puffed up in their attitudes, criticizing St. Paul. He uses sarcasm to say that since they are put last and treated badly by the world, while the Corinthians are treated like kings and are so wise, God must have sent THEM as Apostles.)

39. What did St. Paul say is the difference between a 'wife' and a 'virgin'? (Chpt 7:32-35).
40. St. Paul said a wife is bound to her husband only until he dies. After that, she is permitted to marry. But what is the condition? Can she marry just anyone? (Chpt 7:39)
41. St. Paul has a lot to say about marriage. He obviously prefers that everyone remains as him, unmarried. But is St. Paul condemning marriage in this chapter? What is he saying about marriage and how it relates to serving God? (Chpt 7:32-35).

Some of those who were more mature in the faith and more knowledgeable could eat food offered to idols and not fear because they knew an idol was nothing and they only worshiped the One True God. However, the 'weaker brother' did not have this knowledge and he believed that food offered to idols was really a sacrifice and the idol was real. Therefore, Paul was informing the mature brothers to refrain from eating the food, lest the weaker brother follows suit, eats the food and believes in the idol and perishes because of what he saw his stronger brother do. Though Paul KNOWS better (knowledge), his LOVE for his fellow brother is more important than eating the food).
